STEEL STRIKE STILL ON

ANALGAMATED BOARD WAS AN ALL-DAY RESSION. Adjournment Taken at 6 o'Clock Till To-day

-Manufacturors' Torms Discussed in Seoret Session, in Which Complaint Is Made That Shaffer Has Tielded Everything. PITTEBURG, Pa., July 80.-The big steel strike was not declared off to-day. After an all-day's session the Executive Board ot the Amalgamated Association adjourned at 6 P. M., and it was given out that it would meet again to-morrow morning. No con-ference was held with the manufacturers and the latest story is that none is contemplated, as was intimated in THE SUN of Having read in the local papers that the manufacturers had agreed to a settlement that would be a triumph for the Amalgamated Association, the strikers were nished to-day to learn that Morgan had practically issued an ultimatum and that the acceptance of it by Shaffer would be a victory for the trusts. They now realize that if the strike is settled under the terms made public the Amalgamated Association will not have won the main point on which the strike was declared and will have lost privileges or "rights," as they are called, that it had before.

It was learned to-day that in all proba bility the manufacturers are not willing to concede to the strikers the four stee hoop mills, three in Pittsburg and one in Monessen, that had been considered nonunion, but demonstrated they were organised by ceasing work when Shaffer called the Amalgamated Association out. The strikers learned that it is extremely likely that if the strike is now settled these mills will have to be regarded as non-union mills and that the manufacturers will refuse to sign the Amalgamated scales for

In brief, the strikers will lose the Saltsburg and Old Meadow sheet steel mills, which the manufacturers once offered them, but which the manufacturers will retain, the men in them having refused to join the strike, besides losing the four steel hoop mills, which they gained from the manufacturers. According to the latest developments to-day, the interview printed in Monday's Sun, practically stating that the acceptance of Morgan's terms meant a settlement on the basis existing before the strike, was strictly correct.

Reports to-day say that the members of the Amalgamated Executive Board are in a state of wonder over Schaffer's attitude. The incorporation in the rules of the association of a provision that the manufacturers must sign the union scale for all their mills, union and non-union, was Shaffer's work; the bringing on of the strike to enforce that rule was Shaffer's work, and now the strikers cannot understand how he can be willing to break the rule that he created and end in defeat the strike

The feeling is the more bitter, because every member of the Amalgamated Association knows that had it not been for Shaffer's insistence on impossible terms there would have been no strike at all and the association would still be strong. They Company, the American Sheet Steel Company and the American Tin Plate Company are permitted to have non-union men in union mills the Republic Iron and Steel Company, which has none but union mills, will probably demand the same terms when the present wage scale ex-

All that could be obtained from Shaffer to-day was the following statement:

"I can say that the meeting has adjourned till to-morrow morning. There will be no statement made by me until the Executive Board either accepts or rejects the proposition offered. The Board will continue the work to-morrow."

In the meantime the strikers are as vigilant as ever in picketing the non-union mills of the three companies, and the companies are making repairs and are ready to make concerted efforts to resume work at the idle mills, whether the strike be called off or be continued. While there is spirited objection to settling the strike on Morgan's terms from various members of the Amalgamated Association's Executive Board, for the various reasons given, and though the members of the association generally would reluctantly accept such a termination, this does not mean that the strike will continue.

Under the rules of the association the President and the Secretary can be authorized by the Executive Board to end any strike, and it is likely that Shaffer and Secretary Williams will receive the board's instructions to accept the manufacturers' terms, although efforts will first be made to secure modifications of the terms. Some members of the board were not satisfied with Shaffer's actions in bringing on the strike, but rather than disrupt the association by continuing the fight, they may be willing to accept defeat and end the con-

The Executive Board of the Amalgamated association went into session at 9:30 A. M. and discussed the Morgan ultimatum until 12:30 P. M., when adjournment was taken for luncheon. The session was resumed at 2:40 P. M. and continued until 6 P. M. and adjourned until to-morrow morning.

Strict secrecy was observed during the deliberations. The board room is separated from the front office by another room, which was kept clear of occupants. An unused door opens from the board roominto the hall of the Bissell block, the building in which the Amalgamated headquarters is, and before this door a minor official was posted. He became uneasy when anybody lingered near the door and several times persons were requested to move on. Through the door the voices of the Executive Board members could often be heard in violent protestation. Snatches of remark like 'If we accept that we shall be worse off than before the strike"; "The men will never agree to that"; "We'll lose privileges that we've had for years," were frequently audible. Shaffer was often spoken to by name. He appeared, from the remarks that could be overheard, to be recommending the acceptance of some terms, and there was a chorus of approval when

Garland, former President of the Amalgamated Association, and Joseph Bishop, member of the Ohio State Board of Arbitration, visited the board room. B. M. Joseph R. Schwab, brother and assist ant to C. M. Schwab, President of the United States Steel Corporation, came to Pittsburg this morning and was preceded by Veryl Preston, of the American Steel Hoop Company. They did not attend the meet of the members of the Executive Board could not restrain themselves from venting their dissatisfaction at the terms that President Shaffer had brought back from New York, and which, strange as it appeared to them, he had just been urging them to scoept. They would not say categorically what the terms were, but they intimated that unless they were modified the board would probably reject them.

They object to the provision allowing non-union men to work in the union mills, and they do not believe the rank and file will look with favor upon the retention by the manufacturers of the men who are now working in some of the mills that are on strike, the Wellsville mill, for instance.

The afternoon session of the Amalgamated Executive Board was quieter than that of the morning. Whether Shaffer had succeeded in impressing upon his fellow members the advisability of accepting the trust's terms is not known, but at any rate the remonstrances of the morning were not heard. McKEESPORT. Pa., July 80 .- Gathered about the telegraph, telephone and newspaper offices to-night are thousands of workingmen, all of them vitally interested in the outcome of the conference which has been on all day among the Amalgamated officers in Pittsburg. The strike leaders in this city are perfectly satisfied that a division has arisen among the Advisory Board. They are not expecting a settlement to-night and do not look for one for several days.

CORNELL STUDENT DROWNED. Percy Proctor, Jr., Son of the Cincinnati Sons

Manufacturer, Lost in Cayuga Lake. ITHACA, N. Y., July 30 .- It is now considered pretty certain that Percy Proctor Jr., the Cornell student and son of the Cincinnati soap manufacturer, was drowned in Cayuga Lake last Saturday. William H. ## NEW RULES FOR CENTRAL'S TUNNEL. Frainmen Ordered to Give Special Attention to Ventilation.

WRITE PLAINS, July 30 .- Since the Grand Jury began investigating the Park avenue tunnel the New York Central Railroad officials have been unusually active, and sweeping orders have been issued to the conductors and trainmen to do everything in their power to relieve the bad conditions while the trains are passing through the subway. The Harlem Railroad issued a notice to-day through Trainmaster Van Tassel which now keeps the trainmen busy and means an improvement in their service for the benefit of the commuters. Among its many provisions are the following: "Special attention must be given to ventilation. While cars are standing in Grand Central Station, windows must be opened and gas turned down to lowest point. Gas when used in tunnel must be at half pressure only. Coach doors must be opened immediately upon emerging from tunnel. Trains using main tunnel need not have win dows closed, if free from gas and smoke. Ventilators need not be

SHOULDER DISLOCATED 48 TIMES. As the Result of 42 Falls Following 42 Attacks of Angina Pectoris.

George Slate of 868 Lexington avenue, while dining with a friend at Seegert's estaurant on Lexington avenue near Fifty-ninth street on Sunday night, was eized with an attack of angina pectoris. In falling to the floor he dislocated his left shoulder joint. He was taken to the office of Dr. P. D. Riordan at 724 Lexington evenue, where the dislocation was reduced. Mr. Slate, who is less than 30 years of age and is an advertising agent, told Dr.

Riordan that he had had no less then fortytwo similar attacks, and that every time he had fallen his shoulder had been dislocated, and that each time the doctors had given him ether.

He said that in Philadelphia he was told by the doctors who attended him that he had probably been under the influence of ether more times than any man livingat least, he said, they had never heard of a record to compare with his.

BIG BABBOON AT LARGE. Escaped From His Cage Between Bridgeport

and Derby. BRIDGEPORT, Conn., July 30 .- A big babboon is at large in this vicinity, having escaped from his cage at Pine Rock Park between this city and Derby yesterday and a posse of men with dogs is in search of the animal. The animal escaped by forcing aside a portion of a high close woven when somebody said: "You'll never be wire fence which surrounded the cage.

WINNER IN THE GOVERNMENT LAND LOTTERY GETS MANY OFFERS.

Loss Her Farm if She Weds-Man She Is Engaged to and Man She Isn't -- Drawing for Homostoads Continued Before a Crowd

EL RENO, July 30 .- The drawing for teads in the Kiowa and Comanch reservations continued to-day The scenes about the lottery platform were a repe tition of those of yesterday, but during the night and early morning the crov had been swelled by several thousand eager people, who had flocked to the town in prairie schooners or on trains. Many slept again upon the hillsides around the wheels of fortune to be on hand early. Others came from uptown at the first break of day and secured positions as close to the platform as possible. When the second day's drawing began it was estimated that over 30,000 persons were on hand.

It was decided to draw 2,000 names from the wheels to-day, 1,000 each from the El Reno and the Lawton land districts. The drawing was started promptly and the envelopes were taken from the wheels at a rapid rate.

Miss Mattie Real, who draw the second prize in the Lawton district, has been besieged all day with proposals of marriage. She wired to friends in Washington to see if she could marry her sweetheart, Ernest Dill, a street car conductor of this city, and still hold her land. She was informed to-night hat if she married she would forfeit all rights to her farm. She left to-night for Oklahoma.

Miss Minerva McClintock of Oklahom City, who drew No. 18 in the El Reno district, married G. W. Turner at Oklahoma City on Sunday She was notified to-day that she would lose her farm, which was worth

KANSAS CITY, Kan., July 30.-Charles 7. Akerland, head porter in the Savoy lotel here, is not quite sure whether he has been lucky in the land lottery or not He says he is engaged to Miss Martha H. Beal of Wichita, who drew No. 2 home stead in the Lawton district, a prize esti mated to be worth $25,000. Miss Beal used o be a telephone girl here. Two months ago she went to her home in Wichita, and s now on the "central" board there. This morning Akerland wrote to Miss Beal at Wichita, Kan., but apparently a great disappointment is in store for him.

A despatch received to-day says Miss Beal denies that she is engaged to Akerland and will not marry any one until after she has proved up her claim.

HOMESTEAD WINNERS CAN'T SELL OUT. Secretary Hitchcock Tells of Plans to Enferce the Law.

WASHINGTON, July 30 .- Secretary of the Interior Hitchcock is very indignant over the statements to the effect that the persons who drew the first choices in the El Reno and Lawton districts of the Indian lands recently thrown open for settlement were preparing to sell their claims to the highest oidders and that the officers of the genera land office would not be able to enforce the provisions of the Homestead law against such transfers.

Secretary Hitchcock said that on pre-Secretary Hitchcock said that on previous occasions, when lands were thrown open for settlement, it may have been possible that such transfers were made, owing to a lack of proper registration facilities. The introduction of the new system of allotment and the care that has been exercised on this occasion in keeping the records would effectively prevent any such land juggling by speculators. He pointed out that, by the terms of the Homestead law, five years must elapse between the taking out that, by the terms of the Inchesceat law, five years must elapse between the taking out of a title by a settler and the perfection of the title and payment of the final fee. During the interval the settler must live upon and improve his property, and any transfer of his rights before the expiration of the five year. Himt would invalidate the

It would be absolutely impossible, Mr. Hitchcock says, for land speculators and boomers to evade the law in a single instance. at the present opening, owing to the detailed accuracy of the methods of registration and allotment.

BRIDE DANCED HERSELF TO DEATH. Fatal End to the Celebration of a Polish Wedding.

McKessport, Pa., July 30 .- Mrs. Anna Brudowicz, 22 years old, and a bride of twenty-four hours, danced herself to death at her wedding feast here to-day. She was married yesterday morning to John Brudowicz, one of the leaders in the Polish settlement.
The celebration of a Polish wedding

The celebration or a Foish wedding usually lasts several days. This was scheduled to occupy the remainder of this week. It is customary at these celebrations for every male guest to dance with the brids, which honor costs the guest $1. In this way several hundred dollars are usually raised to pay for the celebration and help the newly married pair start. and help the newly married pair start housekeeping. The dance is a wild whirl about the hall in which the festivities are held, and the bride is passed from one man to another as rapidly as the round of the oom is made. Mrs. Brudewicz had finished the ninetyfourth round of the room with as many different guests when the company was called to supper. The bride complained of feeling sick and almost immediately dropped over in a faint and died before medical assistance could reach her. Physical assistance could reach her. medical assistance could reach her. Physicians stated that death was due to heat prostration caused by over exertion.

The young husband is almost crazed over the death of his bride, and is being closely watched to prevent him from committing in Deerfield. DEERFIELD, Mass., July 30 .- A party of Old Home Week" visitors had a very enjoyable pilgrimage over historic Indian war ground to-day and dedicated a monu ment at the scene of "The Bars Fight" in

Monument Dedicated on Site of Indian Massacre

The monument was the gift of James W Barnard of Boston, whose ancestor, Joseph Barnard, with others, was ambushed by Barnard, with others, was ambushed by Indians and killed at the spot where the memorial stands. The date of the fight was Aug. 21, 1695. At the monument a poem by Mrs. Elizabeth W. Champney of Deerfield was read, and William Lambert Barnard of Boston made a short address. From this spot the party proceeded to the Bloody Brook monument at South Deerfield, where on Sept. 18, 1675, the whites were ambushed by Indians and sixty or seventy of them were killed; and to the seventy of them were killed; and to the spot in Whately, where occurred the first encounter between the whites and the TITLE TO PHILIPPINE LANDS. Government Wins in the Mariveles Quarrie Case.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. Manila, July 30 .- Attorney-General Wilfley has decided the Mariveles stone quarries case in favor of the Government. This s reassuring to contractors and means a difference of hundreds of thousands of dollars in the building of harbor works. The case arose through the Aldecoa Company claiming title to public lands which the Spanish Government had irregularly allowed it to possess. The Aldecoa Company, it was found, was not entitled o the property.

This case seems to indicate that the Government will strictly enforce the law in regard to public lands and mines. It is also likely that many similar cases will be brought up in the matter of mines, quarries and other property.

GERMAN TROOPS OUT OF PERIN. Only Small Legation Guard Left - When Will China Pay First of Indemnity? Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN.

PEKIN, July 30.-There are only twenty five men of a legation guard left of all the German troops who were formerly here. The last of the Germans left to-day. The British have not yet left.

One of the foreign Ministers inquired f Sir Robert Hart, Imperial Commissioner of Maritime Customs, to-day, if there was a possibility of China paying a semi-annua installment on the indemnity of 450,000,000 taels next January. Sir Robert thinks t will be impossible to make the necessary changes and secure revenue sufficient to cover the first payment in less than a period of three years. The Powers will oppose any such delay. Rice tributes are coming here by steamboats and railway instead of by canal. The first lot arrived to-day. One hundred and thirty trains with over 500 tons of rice are expected within the next four months This is a sign that the Court is to return

FREEMASONS BACK A WAR?

SAID TO HAVE SUPPLIED GEN. URIBE

WITH FUNDS. The General Has Again Taken the Field Against the Colombian Government, and His Reprecentatives Say Freemasons Here and in Europe Furnished Him the Sinews of War. Gen. Rafael Uribe Uribe, the hero of he Colombian rebellion, who slipped away from this city quite mysteriously a little more than a month ago, is back in Colombia and at the head of an insurrectionary force estimated to number about 15,000. This ent, which will prove unwelcome news to the Government which he will attempt to overthrow, was made last night by Dr. A. J. Restrepo, diplomatic agent of the Liberal party, and Senor Raoul Perez, Secretary to Gen. Uribe during the latter's stay here. It is further asserted that his command is supplied with the most improved pattern of Mauser rifle, purchased abroad by Dr. Restrepo and trans-shipped from this port as merchan-

What is perhaps more startling is the statement that much of the money with which these elements were secured was contributed by Freemasons here and in Europe, who are anxious to rid Colombi of the Conservative Government which is unalterably antagonistic to the order and all others opposed by the Church. Dr. Restrepo said that $200,000 was collected in this country and abroad, and with this amount at their disposal he is sanguine that the Liberal party will be victorious. Gen. Uribe came here last January after the rebels had nearly exhausted their amnunition and their cause seemed hopeless. He agreed with the Colombian Minister at Washington, Dr. Carlos Martinez Silva, to issue a manifesto calling on his followers to quit fighting, in return for which the Government promised amnesty to the political prisoners and also to institute certain reforms, particularly equal rights at the polls to all citizens, which is at present denied to the Liberals. Señor Perez sald last night that the rebel chief acted with the utmost sincerity when he issued this document, hoping that the lot of his compatriots might be ameliorated. Col. Abel Murillo, who, as was told in yesterday's Sun, was dragged from the German steamer Allegheny and cast into prison at Cartagena, was sent to Colombia as the peace emissary. He was arrested at Barranquilla on his arrival and imprisoned at Bogota. This was late in March.

Gen. Uribe was angered by this treatment of his aide, but still hoped that he would be set free when he exhibited his passport from the Minister at Washington. But he was held prisoner and, as a further exhibition of bad faith, the Government arrested two brothers of Uribe. Besides, there came occasional stories that the Liberal prisoners were being subjected to cruel treatment. These things determined Gen. Uribe to go back and continue the fight against his old enemy, the Conservative Government here on June political prisoners and also to institute tinue the fight against his old enemy, the Conservative Government.

Gen. Uribe sailed from here on June 15 on the steamer Caracas under an assumed name. His departure was kept a secret, and although his movement was the closely watched by detectives it was three weeks before it was discovered that he had left the country. This new outbreak has been planned on a gigantic scale. Besides the 15,000 Mausers bought for it, there have been sent from the nearby distributing points 2,000,000 cartridges, three uting points 2,000,000 cartridges, three rapid-fire guns and a quantity of other war material.

News of Gen. Uribe's exact whereabouts is expected to-day by the steamer Hildur from Maracaibo. The opinion prevails that he has already fought several battles, but if this is so the news has been suppressed by the official censor.

by the official censor.

Dr. Restrepo said yesterday in regard to the interest said to have been taken in the revolution by members of the Masonio cerdor.

"Gen. Uribe is a high Mason. because of its domination by the Church is a bitter enemy of Masonry. When this was learned here and aboard, Gen. Uribe and I were deluged with offers of assistance and we accepted them. We have nearly $200,000 on hand to carry on have nearly $200,000 on hand to carry on the war and we shall use it vigorously."

Dr. Restrepo said that he purchased the war supplies in Belgium. The diplo-matic agent said that the Liberals wished to warn the French-Panama Canal Com-pany that all contracts which it enters into with the Colombian Government un-less arrayard by Coursea will be a suppressed by less approved by Congress, will be repudi-ated when the Liberals come into power. A similar warning was the substance of a letter to President Hutin by Dr. Restrepo, year ago. Herbert O. Jeffries, who it is said is con-Herbert O. Jeffries, who it is said is con-nected in a military capacity with the Colombian Government, is in this city. His mission is reported to be the purchas-ing of arms and also vessels which can be verted into gunboats.

DR. PFEIFFER'S 30-DAY PAST. He Says His Muscle and Brain Are as Good as

They Were a Month Ago. BOSTON, July 30 .- Dr. Immanuel Pfeiffer will end a fast of thirty days to-morrow. He will not baby his stomach with gruels and soups and other light foods, but will surprise it with six or eight boiled eggs, a half dozen baked potatoes, a quart of milk, a quart of berries and anything else in a vegetarian line than strikes his fancy.

An important part of Dr. Pfeisfer's theory is that his stomach will accommodate as large a first meal as his appetite demands; that his digestive organs are in no wise harmed, but strengthened by their month's rest.

By a system of daily tests, Dr. Pfeiffer has assured himself that every muscle and all his brain tissue are in as perfect condition as a month ago. He has lost weight, however, almost at the rate of a pound a day. He is now twenty-six pounds lighter than when he started his fast.

"I shall never be satisfied," he said this morning, "until I have fasted sixty days thou loaing weight."

Mrs. Mary Austin Carrell Amists the University BOSTON, July 30 .- After April 1, 1902, the University of Virginia will have $10,000 additional income through the action of

Mrs. Mary Austin Carroll of Boston.

Mrs. Carroll's father, Arthur W. Austin, was a well-known lawyer in this city, who died on July 26, 1884. At his death, he left the income of the estate, valued at about $400,000, to his daughter, Mrs. Carroll, for life, and then to the University of Vir ginia. Mrs. Carroll was anxious to carry out her father's desires before her death, so, through the executors of the Austin estate, William Endicott, second, and Bently W. Warren, the income of the entire estate, less $5,000 reserved for herself, has been transferred to the University of Virginia.

SALOON SMASHED-MRS. NATION STYLE. Mrs. Jane Cottrell Gets to Work With Her Axe at Vicits, Kansas.

TOPEKA, Kan., July 30 .- A new Mrs. Nation has appeared in Kansas. Mrs. Jane Cottrell smashed a saloon at Vleits, in Washington county last night, breaking a half dozen large glass windows with an axe. Several years ago she smashed a saloon here and since that time has made numerous threats against the saloons.

She came to town last night, hitched her horse in front of the "joint," took an axe from the buggy and went in. She was in consultation with the proprietor fully thirty minutes. Several who came in stayed to see the smashing. Mrs. Cottrell wanted the proprietor to remove all the fixtures, which he refused to do. He gave the signal to the crowd to get out and the door was locked. Mrs. Cottrell went out with the others and at once began chopping. Five minutes after the smashing business was resumed at the bar.

Mrs. Cottrell weighs over 200 pounds and she wielded the axe like a veteran. She defled the officers to arrest her as she drove back to her farm.

AHORT-LIVED CORN KING. Phillips of Chicago Complains of Phillips of Despatches from Chicago yesterday stated that George H. Phillips, the "Corn King," had reported to the postal authorities that circulars purporting to come from "George H. Phillips, 6 Wall street," had been sent through the country asking for subscriptions to a $2,000,000 deal in September corn.

A man who gave his name as Phillips hired desk room from John L. Coady, a real estate broker, at 6 Wall street, last Friday. He said he represented a cement company in Canada, had only been in the city a short time and could not give any references. He paid a month's rent for the desk and every morning sent a man for his mail. Mr. Coady said last night that no mail came for him. A package of literature came one day but as there were $1.25 charges on it Mr. Coady would not take it. Mr. Coady says he hasn't seen Phillips' since Friday. It is said that the postal authorities have a bundle of circulars signed "George H. Phillips & Co.," asking for subscriptions for carrying another great "May corn deal

MURDER AT A CHURCH DOOR. Pastor Chases and Captures the Murderer and

Turns Him Over to the Police. BIRMINGHAM, Ala., July 30.-While last night's congregation was going out of Trinity Church in Lamar county, where a revival is being held, John Yarbrough and John Cole, two prominent young men of that community, quarrelled over an alleged remark made by one of the young men against a young lady. Yarbrough pulled a knife and stabbed Cole to death.

Yarbrough jumped on a mule and made off. The Rev. Moses McGee, who is conducting the services, jumped on another mule and gave chase. The pastor overtook Varbrough after a ride through a rough section of the country. The young man was turned over to the authorities by the pastor and he will be tried for murder.

FERRYBOAT STRUCK YACHT

SAMUEL T. SHAW'S BELLEWERE GETS A SIDEWISE THUMP.

Southampton as the Yacht Beels-She Rights and Goes On With Her Starboard Rail Smashed - The Ferrybeat Is Laid Of.

The 125-foot steam yacht Bellen wned by Samuel T. Shaw of the Grand Union hotel was struck by the ferryboat Southampton of the Long Island Railroad in midstream opposite the James alip ferryhouse vesterday afternoon at 4:25 o'clock The Southampton was heading for James slip. The Bellemere came up the river on the east shore and tried to pass under the Southampton's bow. The ferryboat struck her amidships, tilting her over to port until the port guard rail was almost under water. Five Swedes of the crew of the yacht clambered aboard the So ampton. After the collision the Southampton went straight to her slip. The Bellemere stopped for a few seconds and then steamed on up the river, whistling for tugs, two of which took her in tow. Mr. Shaw was not on the yacht at the time. She picked him up at Twenty-fourth street and went to the Seawanhaka and age at Oyster Bay under her own steam, dismissing the tugs. Mr. Shaw said last night that the Bellemere had been lying in the lower bay and was coming up the river to take him on. There were no guests aboard at the time of the accident. His captain had told him that the ferryboat disregarded the yacht's signals. The only damage done to the Bellemere, he said, consisted in the carrying away of the rail and stanchions for several feet on the starboard side.

Policeman Fred Coombs of the Oak street station, was on the Southampton. He said that there were only a few passengers on the forward deck. There was a strong flood tide and Capt. Moore of the Southampton, when he saw he was likely to hit the yacht rang for full speed astern and gave three sharp blasts of his whistle to notify the yacht that he couldn't do any more to get out of the way. No reply came from the yacht, the policeman said. When the boats struck the forward deck of the Southampton overlapped the yacht tearing away the brass railing. The yacht righted herself and after a delay of a few seconds went on with her whistle blowing. All the damage that could be seen was that the rail on the starboard side had been smashed. Capt. Moore of the Southampton reported to Supt. Des Anges of the Long Island Railroad that the only damage to the Southampton was that the iron gates on the forward deck were broken and twisted. The police reported that she had broken her rudder pin. She was laid up for repairs. Capt. Moore said later that as soon as to beliennere coming up hugging the Man hattan shore, and he signalled that he would cross the yacht's bows. "She gave the contrary signal," said Capt. Moore, "and I whistled again to let the yacht's steersman know I was going to cross his bows. Again the yacht sig-

he began to turn the Southampton in midstream, to head toward the slip, he saw nalled that she was going ahead. By that time the boats were so near together that a collision was inevitable. I could n stop the Southampton and we struck the yacht amidships."

KILLED ON PICKET DUTY. Former Cincinnati Man, in British Army in South Africa, Shot.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, July 30 .- W. R. Ware of Dayton, Ky., representing the Union Publishing Company, says that his brother, J. P. Ware, a former Cincinnatian, was pressed into service in the British army in South Africa and killed while on picket duty. The Wares are sons of George C. Ware, who was at one time a prominent and wealthy vinegar manufacturer of the Ware was in New Orleans and hired to a British transport captain as a muleteer, together with Thomas Burke and several other Americans. Burke writes that when they reached Africa they were forced into the English army and that Ware, who was hard of hearing, was placed on picket duty, one night, and shot by a fellow sentinel because he did not heed the command to halt which he did not hear. Attorney E. P. Bradstreet has been engaged to press the claim for damages as redress against the British Government.
